

Interfaith Dialogue Program

Every year Foundation for Universal Responsibility of His Holiness the Dalai Lama organizes Interfaith Dialogue program which embrace religious diversity, build cross-culture understanding and encourage spiritual growth through the first hand exploration of different faith tradition. The Foundation invites representatives from various monasteries and religious groups from India to participate with the program. Interfaith program on Buddhism has been hosted by Sera Jey Monastic University since 2003.

Tenth Interfaith Dialogue will be held from 5th - 20th August, 2013. Again this year, the Foundation's Interfaith program on Buddhism will be held at Sera Jey Monastic University on 18th - 19th August, 2013. Sera Jey provides program on Buddhism, Buddhist history and Tibetan Buddhist cultural history.
